From the Vicar's Desk

What is the Sacrament of Confession?

“Confession is an act of honesty and courage; an act of entrusting ourselves, Beyond sin, to the mercy of a loving and forgiving God. It is an act of the prodigal son who returns to his Father and is welcomed by Him with the kiss of peace. -- Pope St. John Paul II

Three conditions are necessary for the sacrament of Confession: contrition, which is sorrow for sin, together with a purpose of amendment; confession of sins without any omission; and satisfaction by means of good works. – Thomas Aquinas The priest to whom confession is made is the delegate of Christ, Who is the Judge of the living and the dead. -- Thomas Aquinas

Why We Should Make Our Confession?

1. To cleanse our souls.
2. To grow our relationship with the Lord.
3. To experience Divine Forgiveness.
4. To relinquish our guilt.
5. To acknowledge our sinful ways.

Effects of Confession

“Our Lord himself I saw in . . . this venerable sacrament. I felt as if my chains fell, as those of St. Peter, at the touch of the divine messenger.” – St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

The Catechism of the Catholic Church gives the following effects of Confession:

1. Reconciliation with God and the forgiveness of sins.
2. Reconciliation with the Church (No sin is ever private! Sin, even if committed by a person, has communal and social consequences.)
3. Recovery of the state of grace.
4. Remission of the eternal punishment merited by mortal sins.
5. Remission in part of the temporal punishment, which is the consequence of sin.
6. Peace, the serenity of conscience, and spiritual consolation.
7. An increase of spiritual strength for the struggle of Christian living (CCC 1496).

Funny Story

Blind man and dog: A blind man is walking down the street with his guide dog one day. They come to a busy intersection, and the dog, ignoring the high volume of traffic zooming by on the street, leads the blind man right out into the thick of the traffic. This is followed by the screech of tires as panicked drivers try desperately not to run the pair down. Horns blaring around them, the blind man and the dog finally reach the safety of the sidewalk on the other side of the street, and the blind man pulls a cookie out of his coat pocket, which he offers to the dog. A passerby, having observed the near-fatal incident, can't control his amazement and says to the blind man, ; "Why on earth are you rewarding your dog with a cookie? He nearly got you killed!" The blind man turns partially in his direction and replies, "To find out where his head is, so I can kick his rear end!"
